

Mission Throttle Timeline

Since its inception in 2009, Mission Throttle has invested over $5 million into research, platforms and tools that advances philanthropic innovation and expands social capital to mission-driven organizations

2006

Phillip Wm. Fisher makes a concessionary loan to Starfish Family Services to further stabilize the agency

2009

Starfish Family Services pays off concessionary loan made by Mr. Fisher in 2006

Mission Throttle Founded by Phillip Wm. Fisher

2010

Founder makes an impact investment in Mission Center L3C, a shared service platform focused on providing capacity building for social entrepreneurs.

Sponsors University of Michigan's Navigating the New World, a report focused on mission-related investments (MRIs) and low-profit limited liability companies (L3Cs).

Partners with Americans for Community Development to publish The Future of Philanthropy, an examination of hybrid social ventures.

2011

Invests in CrowdRise, a crowdfunding platform dedicated exclusively to charitable giving.

Sponsors the Early Childhood Education MI business leader development initiative in partnership with Ready Nation and the Children's Leadership Council of Michigan.

Gives capacity grant to support the launch of Third Sector Capital, an impact organization that collaborates with government, funders and providers to address social needs through Pay For Success programs.

2012

Invests in Apparatus Solutions, a provider of cost-effective financial and administrative services for mission-driven organizations.

Gives capacity grant to Ardent Cause, a provider of online data solutions for foundations, funders, impact organizations, collaborations and schools in order to achieve better outcomes.

Teams with Lilly School of Philanthropy to sponsor Leveraging the Power of Foundations - An Analysis of Program-Related Investing.

2013

Invests in Digerati/Insyght, a web platform designed to democratize access to resources for entrepreneurs.

Provides grant support for Bridges Ventures, a fund manager dedicated to sustainable and impact investment.

Phillip Fisher, Founder of Mission Throttle, establishes Council of MI Foundations' Impact Investing Task Force.

Hires Susan Gordon to develop Advisory Services platform.

2014

MT invests in A2B Bikeshare, and Local Orbit, a supply chain platform facilitates connections between local food suppliers and distributors.

Sponsors Laura Tomasko to White House Fellowship Program in the Office of Social Innovation. Fellow focuses on public-philanthropic partnerships and impact investing policy during her two year tenure.

Mission Throttle Timeline

